

KIEVE WAVUS EDUCATION

Snowgoose III Relief Captain & First Mate

Summary

The Snowgoose III Relief Captain & First Mate position is essential for KWE to operate the Snowgoose III, enabling the vessel to support KWE programs and collaborations with local organizations. This person has significant experience, prioritizes safety, is a natural teacher, and is comfortable interacting with a wide range of stakeholders.

Qualifications

100-ton Captain's License and an associate degree or equivalent experience and education, with local knowledge or experience in similar operating environments preferred; collaborative with strong communication and listening skills; excellent work ethic; capable in maintenance, ideally with a basic understanding of diesel engines, and at the very least an open mind and willingness to learn; high integrity; and an understanding that KWE is a nonprofit where all employees are periodically asked to complete duties above and beyond their primary responsibilities to advance its mission.

Primary Responsibilities

- Captain the Snowgoose III or serve as the First Mate as needed.
- Be available to support the maintenance, scheduling, and use of the Snowgoose III, and the Bremen boathouse, property, and KWE lobster traps.
- Help ensure that the vessel is in compliance with applicable codes and regulations and assist in keeping all required records.
- Alert supervisor and appropriate directors to any hazardous conditions or environments and take steps to resolve them in collaboration with the Snowgoose III captain.
- Maintain familiarity with the KWE Emergency Response and Crisis Plans and maintain preparedness to fulfill applicable roles within that plan.
- Working with the full-time Snowgoose III Captain, support the completion of retreats and special events on the Bremen property, and assist with the setup and breakdown of these events as appropriate.
- Be eager to learn and support how we teach KWE's environmental stewardship curriculum on the Snowgoose III and at Bremen.
